

Six simple steps for remote property investors.

Direct Negotiations provides an end to end property search and acquisition service - For you.

The brief - Discuss your requirements, lifestyle, budget and investment strategy.

Property search - Extensively search the market to source the best property match. A large percentage of properties are never offered to the general public.

Feedback - Provide reports, property profiles, updates and photographs from our own sources as well as commercial and government databases.- real data and statistics.

Inspections - We personally inspect all properties that are a potential property match.

Evaluation - For properties that match your brief, we will provide guidance on market value based on sound market research.

Negotiations - We will negotiate or bid on your behalf to secure the property within a set price range. In many cases we have preferred pricing before negotiations even commence. We guarantee to show genuine net savings on your purchase.

Other services - We will coordinate other relevant services such as building inspections, conveyancing solicitor, mortgage broker, strata searches, property management, minor renovations.

Whether you are an Australian living overseas, or based in Australia, we are able to cater for your specific needs.

If you are looking for a well performing investment property, an addition to your existing property portfolio or a home to live in.

We guarantee to save you money on your next real estate purchase. Go to <http://www.directnegotiations.com.au/> , or give us a call on +61 8 84631997

More articles and information at www.directnegotiations.com.au